Dear Sir:

I have a square gold ounce of Philip the Second, and would like to know the value of the same, and whether it would interest you to purchase it, or whether you could find a purchaser for me, selling it on commission.

I enclose photograph of the same, and will be obliged if the matter does not interest you at all, if you will kindly return the photographs in the enclosed stamped envelope, and give me some indication of the same.

Thanking you in advance,

Yours very truly,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Charles Adamson", is written over a faint, rectangular stamp. The signature is fluid and cursive.

Handwritten text, possibly a signature or name, followed by a horizontal line.
